Eli M. Oboler Library is seeking help for a one-time purchase.

American Indian Histories and Cultures: A Digital Collection

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
Buying this collection will strengthen our university holdings in Native American studies and support the work of ISU students and faculty.

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
Native American studies is an important element in the ISU curriculum and this collection will become a showcase for the ISU Libraries. It facilitates the conduct of in-depth research and teaching and supports the work of the History, Anthropology, and English departments, as well as the Idaho Museum of Natural History.
INTRODUCTION

The wide range of material included in American Indian Histories and Cultures presents a unique insight into interactions between American Indians and Europeans from their earliest contact, continuing through the turbulence of the American Civil War, the on-going repercussions of government legislation, right up to the civil rights movement of the mid- to late-twentieth century.

www.aihc.amdigital.co.uk/Introduction/NatureAndScope
This resource contains material from the Newberry Library’s extensive Edward E. Ayer Collection; one of the strongest archival collections on American Indian history in the world. It focuses on material relating to American Indian history in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

©Adam Matthew Digital
CONTENT

RICH SELECTION OF PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SOURCE THEMES

- American Indians and the European Powers
- American Indians and the US Government
- Military Encounters: Conflicts, Rebellions and Alliances
- Observation, Representation and Cultural Encounters
- Indigenous Peoples of Mexico
- First Nations of Canada
- Missionaries and Education
- Trade and Indian Economies
- Civil Rights Movement

www.aihc.amdigital.co.uk/Introduction/NatureAndScope

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
CONTENT

KEY PERIODS COVERED

• Pre-contact — including an interactive map for visualizations of American Indian migration and trade routes
• Early contact between American Indians and Europeans settlers
• The first days of the New Republic and the emerging Federalist Era
• Relocation policy and the ensuing Indian Removal Act of 1830
• Indian Wars, the War of Independence and the American Civil War
• Turn of the century politics and the Progressive Era
• The impact of the Indian New Deal
• The Red Power Movement and the occupation of Alcatraz
• Current areas of interest in American Indian study — including an access to online exhibits and external links

www.aihc.amdigital.co.uk/Introduction/NatureAndScope
CONTENT

Providing information on subjects such as

- Early America and European colonialism
- Territorial disputes, treaties, land cessions
- The Indian Removal Act and termination
- French and Indian Wars, the American Revolution
- US Civil War, Battle of Washita, Battles of Little Big Horn
- European and inter-tribal Indian alliances
- Mexico and the surrounding areas
- Canadian First Nations and the fur trade
- Dissemination of Christianity, Jesuits, Missionaries
- Education and Indian Boarding schools
- Artwork, photographs, journals, travel narratives
- Political activism; the Red Power Movement, Urban Indian Conferences, occupation of Alcatraz

www.aihc.amdigital.co.uk/Introduction/NatureAndScope
CONTENT

Document types, digitized in full color

- Extensive collection of manuscripts from the early 16th to the mid-20th centuries
- Artwork including rare American Indian ledger art
- Speeches and petitions written by American Indians
- Diaries, essays, travel journals and ledger books from early European expeditions
- Correspondence, notes and minutes relating to important treaties
- Early linguistic studies and ethnographic accounts of American Indian life
- Thousands of photographs
- Historic maps and atlases
- Rare printed books
- American Indian newspapers from the 1960s-1990s

http://www.aihc.amdigital.co.uk/Introduction/NatureAndScope

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
“It contains many documents that I can use not only for my own research, but also for use by my students, particularly in my Early North America course. The manuscript and print sources are wonderful, and the early maps add a great dimension often missing from these sorts of digitized collections. The site is easy to navigate, documents are downloadable, and provides an excellent user experience research, but also for use by my students, particularly in my Early North America course. The manuscript and print sources are wonderful, and the early maps add a great dimension often missing from these sorts of digitized collections. The site is easy to navigate, documents are downloadable, and provides an excellent user experience.”

- Paul Sivitz, Ph.D., ISU
TESTIMONIALS

“Primary sources are the meat of historical analysis, and access to [this database] will enrich student learning in a range of classes such as North American West, Native American History, Idaho History, Federal Indian Relations, Latin America, and courses on various periods in U.S. history”

- Kevin Marsh, Ph.D., ISU

“The database facilitates classroom research projects because it houses the materials in one, easy to use location while allowing them to really grasp and appreciate the importance of primary source interpretation in a research paper, thereby equipping them to tackle future research projects in academia or the workforce”

- Kathleen Kole de Peralta, Ph.D., ISU

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
GET INVOLVED

Support ISU Libraries

Donate today
Share our story
Promote student research at ISU
Learn more about the ISU Foundation
Continue to share your love of learning

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
We care about students and research.

We want others to care about them too!

We want this resource for students so much that we will match your donation - dollar for dollar!

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
USE OF FUNDS

100% of your donation will be matched by the ISU Libraries

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
CAMPAIGN GOAL $10,000

Once we have reached our goal, we will end the fundraiser and all donations will go towards the purchase of the resource for ISU.

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
EASY TO DONATE

Choose between a one-time donation via check, Paypal, credit card, or split your donation between twelve EFT installments.

By Phone or Online
- (208)282-3470
- supportisu.org/campaigns/library

By Mail
- ISU Foundation, c/o Library, 921 S. 8th Ave Stop 8050, Pocatello, ID 83209-8050

Isu Payroll Deduction
- Submit a form through the ISU Foundation

supportisu.org/campaigns/library
THANK YOU

ISU Libraries and the students of Idaho State University thank you for your time and support. American Indian Histories and Cultures is a quality resource that provides access to information that has been out of reach for students in Southeast Idaho; this database will greatly enhance the quality of research opportunities at ISU.

Supportisu.org/campaigns/library