Name: ______________________________

My topic is: ___________________________________________________________________

Do a search on your topic, and select a website.

Website name and URL: _________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Currency – When was the information published or last updated? ______________________

Relevance – How is the information appropriate for your topic? ______________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Authority – Who is the author/publisher/sponsor? What are their qualifications? _________
______________________________________________________________________________

Accuracy – Is the information supported by evidence? Is there an obvious bias? __________
______________________________________________________________________________

Purpose – Is the purpose clear? What is the purpose? (Inform? Teach? Sell? Entertain?)
______________________________________________________________________________

What are some keywords about your topic that you might use to search for more information?
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Do not hesitate to ask questions – Librarians at the first floor Reference Desk can help you. 4/11/19